For Your Information – March 6, 2015

“Debut” of new Admin West lobby is delayed – FYI readers, a few weeks ago you received a “heads-up” that we were planning a reception to present the newly renovated lobby of the Administration West building. We expected the reception to occur mid- to late February. That didn’t happen for two reasons. First, the installation of the paintings has been delayed because of the weather. Moving original artwork during weather conditions we’ve experienced lately could have damaged the paintings. Second, we are still working to find a time when the donor of the paintings will be able to attend the reception. So, in the meantime, we hope that you’re enjoying the custom-designed carpet and new furniture that was specially selected to harmonize with the mid-century modern architecture of the building.
