State-Wide Awards Go to Audiology and Speech

Pathology – Congratulations to the UAMS-UALR Department of Audiology and Speech Pathology for new awards from the Arkansas Speech Language Hearing Association (ArkSHA)! Of the 7 awards from ArkSHA this year, 3 are going to faculty and a student in our department:

- Clifford A. Franklin, Ph.D., CCC-A, Associate Professor – Research Award
- Samuel Atcherson, Ph.D., CCC-A, Associate Professor – Audiology Award
- Sarah Kennett, Au.D., Ph.D. Student – Graduate Student Scholarship

Cliff, Sam, and Sarah will receive their awards at ArkSHA's awards ceremony tomorrow, Thursday, October 9, at 8:00 am at Embassy Suites in Little Rock.

Faculty Meeting Scheduled for Friday, October 17 –

Mark your calendar now for the college's semi-annual faculty meeting on Friday, October 17, from 12:00 to 1:30 pm, in room 226 of the I. Dodd Wilson Building. For the first time, the dean will give a "state of the college" presentation that will summarize the college's key indicators and accomplishments during the 2013-2014 academic year.

In addition, you'll get updates from the Promotion and Tenure Review Task Group and the e-Learning Task Group. You'll also meet a sizeable group of new faculty members from several departments. The highlight of the meeting will be the presentation of the faculty excellence awards for 2014-2015. You are welcome to take your own lunch to the meeting; sodas and water will be provided.
