College of Health Professions Phonathon off to a great start

– The first night of the College of Health Professions' 2016 Scholarship Phonathon got the annual event off to a strong start. Student callers raised almost $11,000 in pledges for scholarships. So far, almost $1200 has been donated in the pre-phonathon appeal – for a total of over $12,000!

The competition among departments was stiff on Monday evening. At the end of Monday evening, the Department of Radiologic Imaging Sciences was the leader with $2215 in pledges, followed by Dental Hygiene with $1675. Other totals were:

- Audiology and Speech Pathology $1251
- Dietetics and Nutrition $590
- Genetic Counseling $1150
- Health Information Management $570
- Diagnostic Medical Sonography $105
- Nuclear Medicine Imaging Sciences $925
- Ophthalmic Medical Technology $900
- Physician Assistant $451
- Respiratory and Surgical Technology $1165

Every dollar raised in the phonathon will be spent on student scholarships. Thank you to the student callers, faculty, and staff for participating. Thanks, also to our these businesses who sponsored the event with donations of food and phones.
