Dietetics student wins state award – At last week’s meeting of the Arkansas Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Millicent Nowak, student in the College of Health Professions’ Dietetics Internship program, was selected as the Arkansas Outstanding Dietetics Student for 2017. Each year, only one student in each state in the U.S. is selected for the award. The purpose of the award is to recognize the emerging leadership and achievement of dietetics students. Awards recipients are selected based on their academic achievement, demonstrated leadership, and professional potential. “Millie” graduated from Louisiana State University and is from Pensacola, Florida.

For five of the six years since 2012, UAMS students have been selected for the Arkansas Outstanding Dietetics Student award:

- 2012 – Amy Berry
- 2013 – Leigh Delavan
- 2014 – Courtney Byrum
- 2015 – Juanita Montelongo
- 2017 – Millicent Nowak

Congratulations, Millie, and to program director Tina Crook, and department chair, Reza Hakkak.
