Wallenmeyer selected for dean position –

Congratulations to Mark Wallenmeyer, director of the College of Health Professions' degree programs in Nuclear Medicine Imaging Sciences and Nuclear Medicine Advanced Associate, on his selection to be the dean of Health Professions Division at Northwest Arkansas Community College (NWACC) in Bentonville! Mark will begin his new position on July 1. For the news release in Arkansas Business, click here. Best wishes, Mark, as you start a new phase in your career at NWACC.

Mark is the fourth College of Health Professions faculty member to leave UAMS in the last 10 years for a dean position at another institution. Former associate dean David Shelledy took the dean of the College of Health Sciences position at Rush University in Chicago in 2007. Rebecca Ludwig, chair of Imaging and Radiation Sciences, left UAMS in 2012 to be dean of the College of Health Sciences at St. Petersburg College in Florida. And, in 2015, Don Simpson, chair of Laboratory Sciences, took the dean position for the College of Health Professions at SUNY Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, New York.

Be sure to attend a farewell reception for Mark on Wednesday, June 21, at 3:00 in the lobby of the Administration West Building.
